

News service MAN Group

Press release of
March 28, 2003

Accolades for "Lion's Bus Co. Ltd.", the MAN / Yutong joint venture in China "Luxurious Coach of the Year" and "Chassis of the Year" awards at Busworld Asia

At "Busworld Asia" from 18th to 20th March in Shanghai the MAN / Yutong joint venture from China was able to notch up two successes: the A82 coach chassis was voted "Chassis of the Year 2003", while the Lion's Star came away with the "Luxurious Coach of the Year 2003" prize. This award achieved shortly after the introduction to the market in 2001 means a great success for the Lion's Star.

The prizes were handed over by the organisers of Busworld Asia and Busworld Kortrijk during the show. Richard Detlefsen, Sales Director of Lion's Bus Co. Ltd., accepted the award for "Chassis of the Year 2003", while Guangmin Zhang, Marketing Director of Yutong Bus Co. Ltd., was very pleased to receive the "Luxurious Coach of the Year 2003" prize.

Over 150 companies from the bus industry and public transport put their products on show at the new exhibition grounds in Pudong / Shanghai. Busworld Asia is a branch of the oldest and biggest bus show in the world, Busworld Kortrijk, and the only fair for the bus industry in the whole of Asia. Held this year for the third time, Busworld Asia was visited by 16,000 people from the trade.