MAN Nutzfahrzeuge steps up its commitment in China

On 1st April 2004 MAN Nutzfahrzeuge will be founding its new subsidiary MAN Truck & Bus China with head office in Peking. Managing Director will be Bengt Hamsten, currently Director Engineering at NEOMAN Bus GmbH. Hamsten has many years of experience in various international projects and is closely familiar with the Chinese market.

In founding this new company and appointing Hamsten to manage it MAN is underlining its ambitions in the growing Chinese market. Opportunities for business and co-operation for trucks, buses and components are to be opened up to the best possible effect via the newly established Chinese MAN subsidiary. The existing joint venture, Lion's Bus Co. Ltd., too will be managed from the new subsidiary.
